CABANATUAN CITY -Police officers should be neutral while keeping peace and order in connection with the forthcoming elections, the Central Luzon police chief said here on Tuesday.

Police Regional Office 3 director Brig. Gen. Matthew Baccay said having preference for a certain candidate will result to trouble.

"If there is preference to a candidate over the other, diyan mag-uumpisa ang away," Baccay said in a press briefing after the blessing of the Kapanalig stage and awarding to personnel with distinct accomplishments at the Nueva Ecija police office gym here.

NEPPO director Col. Rhoderick Campo also presented to Baccay a total of 173 assorted firearms that were either confiscated in various law enforcement operations or voluntarily surrendered by owners under Oplan Katok.

Baccay likewise urged political camps and supporters to follow rules and regulations at all times.

He said taking illegal firearms from the hands of unauthorized people, especially criminal groups, will pave the way for orderly and honest elections. He urged police units to further intensify the campaign against loose firearms.

In a talk with police chiefs, Baccay emphasized police's two main functions which include crime prevention and crime solution. These also include the continuous aggressive operations against illegal drugs, he stressed.

Nueva Ecija, he said, tops the provinces in Central Luzon that so far has "pressing issues" in connection with the 2022 national and local elec-

To the Point

Critical conscience of society

FRIENDS, WE are not here to be enchanted by the sirens of the world, but to take our lives in hand, to "take a bite out of life," in order to live it to the full.

In this way, with the freedom of Jesus, we find the courage we need to swim against the current. I would like to emphasize this: swimming against the current, having the courage to swim against the current.

Not the daily temptation to swim against other people, like those perpetual victims and conspiracy theorists who are always casting blame on others; but rather against the unhealthy current of our own selfishness, closed-mindedness, and rigidity that often seeks like-minded groups to survive.

[Avoid] ambiguous compromises. Instead, be free and authentic, be the critical conscience of society. Don't be afraid to criticize! We need your criticism. Many of you, for example, are critical of environmental pollution. We need this! Be free in criticism.

Be passionate about truth, so that, with your dreams, you can say: "My life is not captive to the mindset of the world: I am free, because I reign with Jesus for justice, love and peace!"

Lift your gaze from earth to heaven, not in order to flee but to resist the temptation to remain imprisoned by our fears, for there is always the danger that our fears will rule us. Do not remain closed in on ourselves and our complaints. Lift up your eyes! Get up!

This is the word of encouragement that the Lord speaks to us, the invitation to lift up our eyes, to get up, and I wanted to repeat it in my Message to you for this year of journeying together.

You have been entrusted with an exciting but also challenging task: to stand tall while everything around us seems to be collapsing; to be sentinels prepared to see the light in night visions; to be builders amid the many ruins of today's world; to be capable of dreaming."

This is crucial: a young person unable to dream has sadly become old before his time! To be capable of dreaming, because this is what people who dream do: they do not remain in the darkness, but light a candle, a flame of hope that announces the coming of the dawn. Dream, make haste, and look to the future with courage.

Anak ng Ama: Sino ba talaga?

ANAK NG Ama. Mula sa Pampanga. Alay sa Masa.

Ito ang bansag sa sarili ng kandidato sa pagka-gobernador na si Danilo "Boy" Baylon, naging punongbayan ng Candaba sa isang termino, nakilala sa mga manok na ipinamamahagi hindi lamang sa kanyang bayan kundi sa buong lalawigan.

Higit na kumintal sa kaisipan ng balana ang kanyang iwing pagka-makadiyos, sa kanyang mabuting pangangaral katuwang ang kanyang maybahay na si Apo Aniway na kandidato naman sa pagka-punong bayan ng Candaba.

Dios. Dignidad, Disiplina. Ana nga ng kaniyang bansag na kawikaan. At ayon na rin sa kanya, "atas ng Pagi-noon" ang kaniyang pagtakbo sa pagkagubernador.

"Ang wika ng Ama, sa araw daw na mag-file kami ng COC ng aking asawa, panalo na raw ang maraming taong naghihirap sa buong Pampanga, maging sila man ay nasa kabilang panig pa!" aniya sa kanyang Facebook page.

"Kaya anuman ang aming maranasang paghadlang, hirap, paninira at pananakot... ang lahat ng ito ay hinahandog namin sa mga tao at higit sa lahat... Sa Dios!!!," dagdag pa ni Baylon.

At ito na nga ang nangyari: Inihagkis sa kanya, "Bulaang propeta," sigaw na kumalat hanggang mamaos sa social media. Pinag-iingat ang mga manghahalal na Kapampangan na huwag maging hangal at maniwala na lamang sa mga "nagsisilapit sa inyo na may damit tupa, datapuwa't sa loob ay mga lobong maninila." Mula Mateo 7:15-16, mismo.

Lalo pa ngang tumimo sa kaisipan ng balana ang babala laban sa mga mababangis na lobong nagdadamit tupa sa mga naging pangyayari sa Amerika kung saan inihabla ang isa pang nagpahayag ng sarili na "hinirang na anak ng Diyos" - si Pastor Apollo Quiboloy, tagapagtatag at pinuno ng Kingdom of Jesus Christ, the Name Above Every name at mismong espirituwal na tagapayo ni Pangulong Rodrigo Duterte sa patong-patong na mga kaso ng "sex trafficking of children, sex trafficking by force, fraud and coercion, marriage fraud, money laundering, cash smuggling and visa fraud."

Lubha mang napakalayo ni Baylon kay Quiboloy, sa isip ng marami ay hindi pa rin ito ganap na maihiwalay sa kapahayagang "bulaan," bunga na rin ng kanilang eksklusibong kapatiran bilang mga bugtong na "Anak ng Ama/Diyos."

Hindi. Hindi ko sinasabi, lalo't hindi naniniwalang bulaan si Baylon. Ang pagsama sa kanya ni dating Gubernador Reberendo Ed Panlilio, ang talunan sa pagka-gobernador na dating alkalde ng Bacolor Jomar Hizon, dating alkalde ng Masantol Peter Flores, dati at muling bumabalik sa pagka-mayor ng Floridablanca Eddie Guerrero, at higit sa lahat dating Candaba Mayor Kuyang Jerry Pelayo ay sapat na para sa akin na hindi maitatatwang katibayan na hindi palsipikadong mangangaral si Baylon.

Ang maikling sanaysay na ito ay hindi pakikisali sa madaliang paghusga sa kapwa. Ayon na nga sa Mateo 7:1-2 – "Huwag kayong hahatol upang hindi kayo hatulan.

Ito ay sapagkat sa hatol na inyong ihahatol ay hahatulan kayo. Sa sukat na inyong ipinanukat ay isusukat sa inyo."

Ang alalahanin ko lamang ay ang pagbansag ni Baylon sa sarili bilang "Anak ng Ama" at ang pinagkakahulugan nitong siya ay "sugo" ng Panginoon sa pagtakbo niya sa pagkagubernador - upang akuin mula sa kadiliman (?) ang lalawigan Kapampangan.

Tiyak naman na aral si Baylon sa Banal na Aklat gaya ng mga ipinahihiwatig sa nakita kong bidyo ng kanyang pangangaral. Ang hindi ko matanto ay ito: Nabasa kaya niya sa kanyang sipi ng Bibliya kung sino ang tuwirang tinukoy sa mismong pangalan nito – na "Anak ng Ama"?

Basa:

At noo'y sila'y may isang bilanggong pusakal na tinatawag na Barabbas. Mateo 27:16

At mayroong isa na kung tawagin ay Barabbas, na nakapiit kasama ng nangaghimagsik, mga taong nagsipatay ng mga tao sa panghihimagsik. Markos 15:7

Datapuwa't silang lahat ay nagsisigawang paminsan, na nangagsabi, 'Alisin mo ang taong ito, at pawalan mo sa amin si Barabbas.' Lukas 23:18

Sila nga'y nagsigawang muli, na nangagsasabi: 'Huwag ang taong ito, kundi si Barabbas.' Si Barabbas nga'y isang tulisan. Juan 18:40

Datapuwa't inyong pinakatanggihan ang Banal at ang Matuwid na Ito, at inyong hiningi na ipagkaloob sa inyo ang isang mamamatay-tao. Gawa ng mga Apostoles 3:14

Ang ipinagpalit ng mga Hudyo kay Kristo -- si Barabbas, mula salitang Aramaic na Bar Abba na ang tuwirang salin sa Ingles ay "Son of the Father" at sa Tagalog nama'y "Anak ng Ama."

Ang akin lamang katanungan: Magmimistulang mga Hudyo ba ang mga Kapampangan sa araw ng halalan at pipillin ang nagtanyag sa kaniyang sarili bilang si Barabbas?

Maghunus-dili naman tayo.

The Public Space

It's Pink, Ping, Pacman and Posterboy or Placeholder but not the Punk

AS HIS POWER space get smaller everyday leading to zero power in less than year, President Duterte is feeling what it feels like when everything and everybody seems to slink away, slowly but surely. The period can be a merciless punctuation. The ebbing could only mean the emptying of what was once full and overflowing.

So, what's the best hedge for a fading dictator?

"As he discovered in the course of the unaccountable years, " so Gabriel Garcia Marques wrote of his 'vida' or 'contra vida' in "The Autumn of the Patriarch", that a lie is more comfortable than doubt, more useful than love and more lasting than truth."

That's only partly true. A lie doesn't last; truth does. But dictators, anywhere, east or west, prefer lie, because they want it to last. Donald Trump and his followers in the United States believe, or appear to believe, that the 2020 presidential election was stolen from them by the Democrats. This, notwithstanding the verifiable facts.

Duterte is making a yarn the whole nine yards in the run-up to the 2022 presidential race where he wants his voice to be heard. In his latest presidential, or unpresidential, tsismis, he subtly outed a presidential aspirant who is allegedly a weak leader, among other things., He didn't name who, but the allusion was so unmistakable; it couldn't have been other than Bongbong Marcos.

And then, of course, the antiquarian saying: it takes one to know one. Duterte should know whereof he speaks.

A few days ago, the crew of a Chinese ship fired water cannons on a hapless Philippine boat on a mission to supply Filipino soldiers manning a grounded ship in the West Philippines Sea. It has been there for a long time as a puny but determined symbol of asserting Philippine sovereignty in the sea from shining sea that China is making a dubious claim on.

Duterte could only have encouraged the Chinese' brazen boldness. He said he was not willing to fight a war with China over it. He said he was inutile. He praised Chinese Xi Jingping for his kindness. He said the award won by the Philippines from the Arbitral Tribunal as to who owns the South China Sea was just a piece of, well, scrap.

That should explain China's expansive, invasive actions in the South China Sea like it's nobody's business. Or, for China use only. You have a president like that, who needs enemies.Paraphrasing Pogo, we have met the enemy and he lives by the Pasig River.

Bongbong, in accordance with Duterte's dimunitive view, hasn't spoken on the subject. He was also seen in a tete-a-tete with Chinese diplomats days before the water cannon assault was made. No connection, to be sure. But Bongbong's inert style appears to validate Digong's verbal shot.

Again, look who's talking. Ever since the Senate blue ribbon committee headed by Sen. Richard Gordon has uncovered dubious transactions between the Philippine government and a small-time Chinese-owned medical supplier, Duterte has relentlessly thrown fire and brimstone to those eager to ferret out the truth.

There can only be one explanation: lie is the enemy of truth. If Gordon and company are on the side of truth, who do you think is on the opposite side. No rocket scientist needed to identify forensic evidence on the crime. Now, that's not only weak leadership, that's criminal leadership.

And the cowardly downgrade of a once and future benefactor goes on, according to the gospel of a small- a town despot. He is or was spoiled brat. He is into cocaine. (Hush, he does it in a private yacht or somewhere private). He belongs to the rich and (in)famous. But, thank heavens, he is unlike his father. Remember martial law?

There are two take- aways on the cocaine- use tattle: 1) his so-called war against drug was a dismal failure because he failed to catch the biggest fish of them all using prohibited substance hiding in plain sight. 2) The poor were guilty of the crime; the rich were off the hook.

At one time or another, Duterte thumbed up Bongbong as rightful vice president. He doesn't believe this time, the son of the dictator is fit to have his father's old post. The reason is obvious: he apparently wants Sen. Bong Go, the forever loyal gofer, to be his successor. Are there strong signals from Beijing that it's their choice, too, among others? There was an unconfirmed report by a former dilawan Cabinet member that China will interfere in the 2022 presidential polls.

The idea looks like, the more confused (deceived) the Pinoy voters are, the better. The latest word on this strategy favors deception. According to a research group, most Filipinos are susceptible, not just vulnerable, to disinformation(lie), relying more on their usual source, the social media ,and less on mainstream media.

Or, Digong's trouble may be a function of his age, or aging.

"As one gets older, the more voices you get in the back of your head," Robert Jackson Bennet said. Take a close look at who's nearest to Duterte on his late night

Could the soon-to-be former president be hearing more voices now, apart from those of his Cabinet?

The story goes that Abraham Lincoln once went with his wife Mary to a séance after the death of their son to inquire of him. The joke afterwards was that Lincoln heard several spirits presenting contradictory messages, just as his Cabinet members did.

In Duterte's Cabinet, there is only one voice heard though. The rest is mere commentary or interpretation from his official séances, aka presidential spokesmen. It's no less confusing, judging by his latest put down on a presidential aspirant.

But there is a redemptive moral on the Digong's yarn: choosing the lesser evil, is choosing evil still. Fortunately, there's an alternative. Did I hear anybody say 'pink'?

SBMA approves...

SBMA chair and administrator Wilma T. Eisma said the new investment commitments were made by 40 companies that sought registration as Subic business locators from July to September, as well as by three existing locators that pledged additional investments for expansion projects totaling P49.44 million.

The new investments consisted of 15 projects under the leisure industry, 13 in general business, 11 in logistics and one in information and communications technology, while the expansions were all under the manufacturing sector.

The new investments will bring in a total of 71,522 new jobs, while the expansion projects will generate additional employment of 1,200 in the freeport zone.

According to the SBMA Business and Investment Group (SB-MA-BIG), the new projects approved in Third Quarter 2021 represented a 233 percent increase over the 12 new proposals in the same period last year. In terms of new jobs, the variance showed thousands-fold increase over the 163 posted in ty administrator for business Renato Lee III said the biggest investment proposals came from Subic Supreme Industries, Inc., which committed P15.5 billion for a leisure project; Empress Maritime Subic, Inc., with P201.2-million for another leisure project; Bicol Oil (International) & Shipping Corp., with P179.3 million in logistics; SBGP Food Services, Inc. with P74.62 million in leisure; and Da Fu Yuan Corp. with P57.28 million in general business.

Subic Supreme also topped the employment department with 71,250 projected jobs.

Meanwhile, the biggest commitment for expansion came from Philippine Easepal Technology Ltd. Corp. at P37.45 million. Philippine Easepal, which manufactures sports and leisure articles and apparel, also committed to hire 810 more workers for its expansion.

Lee also said in SB-MA-BIG's Thirds Quarter 2021 report that at least 18 new projects, including co-location agreements with the country's three leading telecommunications players, are under consideration by the Subic agency.

He said SBMA is also reviewing and amending business processes, including the omnibus policy on the imposition of performance bond, to further reduce the period for processing and issuance of business permits and ensure efficient monitoring of development commitments by business locators here.

Eisma said on Friday that the continuing health crisis may have initially caused the closure of some companies in Subic, "but we're definitely making a comeback as a preferred investment destination."

"Aside from sound economic policies that gave investors much-needed support and respite during the pandemic, Subic's superb safety record, which is due to the cooperation of stakeholders in observing health measures, also played an important part in gaining the trust of new investors," she added.

Eisma pointed out the SBMA has been a favored destination for "bubble events" like business conferences, tournaments, and stay-cations at the height of the Covid-19 pandemic, as well as a hub for international crew change and the repatriation of overseas Filipino workers.

3. Respondent of legal age, married, with address at Doña Agripina Street, Angeles City, Pampanga where he may be served with summonses, orders, notices and other court notices.

Manifestation as to the Verified Residency of Petitioner

4. Petitioner would like to manifest to the Court that she has been a resident of the above mentioned address for the past 24 years. As proof thereof, Petitioner is attaching herewith:

a.a sworn statement of residency; b.a certification from her Barangay with attached sketch;

c.Her mobile phone utility bills for s period of 6 months;

d.The personal verification of the undersigned counsel verifying Petitioner's residency;

Statement of Facts

5. Petitioner first met Respondent sometime in 1999 while both were working at Luen Thai at Clark Freeport Zone, Angeles City, Pampanga. Petitioner was an administrative staff while Respondent was production staff 6.Petitioner and Respondent were immediately drawn to each other and after brief of courtship,

7.While dating and before being a couple, Respondent informed Petitioner that he has long broken up with his girfriend and that he considered their relationship as "Being in love, petitioner believe

No Months after, around Novemver 1999, Petitioner discovered that Respondent was two-timing her and that the letter and his girfriend were still pretty much together.

9.Upset, Petitioner confronted Respondent and the latter admitted to his indiscretion. However, Respondent assured Petitioner that he is in love with her and to just give him time to break up with 11.Petitioner then lost contact with Respondent after the latter left Luen Thai around January 2000 and transferred to another company.

12. Almost two years after breaking up, around September 2001, Petitioner and Respondent met again at a party organized by a common friend.

13.Said chance meeting rekindled their relationship and they started dating again. This time,

Respondent assured Petitioner that he is truly single and this he proved by introducing her to his parents and friends

14. Around February 2002, Petitioner learned that she was pregnant. When informed, Petitioner was elated and promised Respondent that he will marry her.

15. Respondent arranged everything for their marriage, including all requirments before the local 16.0n 27 June 2002, Petitioner and Respondent were married before the sala of the HON. PHILBERT I. ITURRALDE, presiding Judge of Branch 58 of the Regional Trial Court of Angeles City. 17.On 27 August 2002, Petitioner and Respondent's daughter IANE PAULINE DELLO y

MACAPAGAL, was born at Mabalacat District Hospital, Mabalacat, Pampanga.

18.Petitioner and Respondent then started to raise their daugther and lived together as husband 19. For the next few years, Petitioner and Respondent's relationship deteriorated. This became worse when Petitioner learned that while Respondent and his ex-girlfriend were indeed seperated, they actually got married in Angeles City sometime in 2001. 20. Petitioner confronted Respondent and the latter, while initially denying the marriage, eventually admitted to it, when informed that it was his own relative that informed the former.

21. Respondent admitted that he indeed married SAHLEE T. QUIZON, on 23 May 2000 before the Mayor's office of Mabalacat, Pampanga.

22. Petitioner was distraught. Respondent then promised Petitioner that he will have the said marriage nullified the moment their finances will allow it.

23. Respondent relented for the sake of their son.

24. Sometimes later, Petitioner and Respondent both decided to work abroad in order to secure the future of their son, and at the same time save money for the nullity of Respondent's marriage. 25. Petitionere worked in United Arab Emirates while Respondent obtained employement in Saudi

26. While abroad, Petitioner and Respondent drifted apart.

27. Around 2010, Petitioner and Respondent personally spoke with one another and decided to call 28. For the next several years, Petitioner lived with the vain hope that they can eventually fix their relationship and Respondent, to not avail. Petitioner continued to expect for Respondent to nullify 29. On 29 February 2016, Petitioner verified with the National Statistics Authority (now, the Philippine Statistics Authority) whether Respondent's previous marriage still subs confirmed through a certification showing Respondent's two marriage.

30.Thus, to free herself of the marital vinculo, Petitioner now seeks fo the declaration of her marriage with Respondent void for being a bigamous marriage.

Properties acquired during the marriage, and Applicability of Art. 147 and 148 of the Family Code

31.Petitioner and Respondent did not enter into any marital settlement governing their property regime before the marriage.

32.To Petitioner's knowledge, during the marriage, she and Respondent did not acquire any real or personal properties of value. If any gifts were given to one another, the same were moderate gifts for personal use, and only on occasions of family rejoicing like birthdays and / or anniversaries. 33. Considering that Petitioner and Respondent's marriage is void Article 147 and 148 of the Family Code hereby applies for purposes of the seperation of their property, including those that may come to the Court's attention during the proceedings of this case.

Cause of Action

34. Bigamy is defined as the act of contracting "of a second or subsequent marriage before the former marriage has been legally dissolved, or before the absent spouse has been declared presumptively dead by means of a judgement rendered in the proper proceeding. 35.In order words, a bigamous marriage presupposes that the first marriage validly subsists at the time of the celebration of the second marriage. 36.A bigamous marriage, by its very nature, is considered as void accordance with Art. 35 (4) of the family Code, to wit- Art. 35. The Following marriage shall be avoid from the beginning;

(4) Those bigamous or polygamous mariage not failing under Article 41;

37. The solew exception, for a bigamous marriage to be considered as valid, fall under Article 41 of the Family Code which provision deals with the return of a spouse that has been judicially declared as presumptive dead. Otherwise, all bigamous marriage are void ab initio.

38.In this case, Petitioner and Respondent's marriage on 27 June 2002 was celebrated when the latter's marriage dated 27 May 2002 with a certain SAHLEET. QUIZON is still subsisting. 39.This means that Petitioner and Respondent's marriage is a bigamous marriage and thus, should be declared void ab initio by the Court.

40.ALL TOLD, it is clear that Petitioner is entitled to the relief sought and that the marital bond she was with Respondents should be declared as quasi nunquam in accordance with law.

WHEREFORE, premise considered, Petitioner most respectfully prays that after due hearing that Petitioner's marriage with Respondent on 27 May 2002 celebrated in Angeles City, Pampanga be declared void ab initio in accordance with Article 35(4) of the Family Code Other reliefs just and equitable under the premises are likewise prayed for.
