MANILA -- The NLEX Corp. is ramping up the enforcement of the anti-overloading policy to further ensure the safety of motorists plying the NLEX-SCTEX as it now implements the 33-ton weight limit on the Candaba Viaduct Southbound while the urgent repairs are ongoing.

Pampanga Gov. Dennis

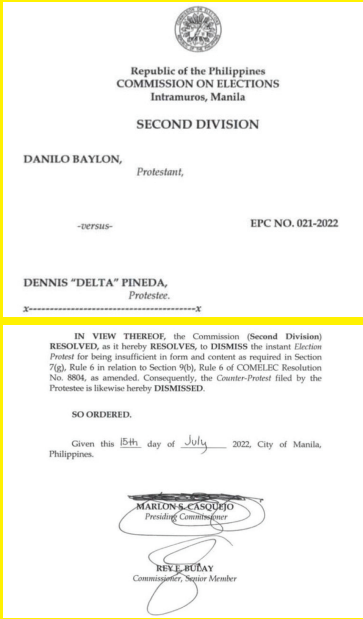

Pineda supported the move and gathered truckers and relevant agencies to agree on the said weight limit.

“We are delighted that truckers in Pampanga, through the efforts of Governor Pineda, have signified their willingness to comply with the weight limits on our expressways,” said NLEX

Corp. president and GM J. Luigi L. Bautista, noting that “the anti-overloading program aims to uphold safety by restricting overloaded vehicles from entering the expressways or by asking them to go to the nearest exit point as the extra load may affect vehicle control, thus, cause

CSF free dialysis program prepared for beneficiaries

CITY OF SAN FERNANDO -- The city government is now preparing for the enrollment of the beneficiaries of Mayor Vilma Caluag's brainchild – free hemodialysis under her universal health care program.

Only last Aug. 2, a memorandum of agreement was signed between Caluag and the program's provider Luzon Medical System, represented by its CEO Peter Paul Soliman which greenlighted the parties to proceed to the succeeding steps – the enrollment of beneficiaries and construction of the City Dialysis Center at the City Civic Center in Barangay San Isidro.

To date, the MOA cited that there are 414 Fernando no indigent dialysis patients who are eligible to avail themselves of the program. The city health office and city social welfare and development office are targeting to start the enrollment of beneficiaries from the initial batch of barangays in the succeeding weeks.

This is in consonance with the construction of the center set also in the same period after the acquisition of necessary permits.

PhilHealth raises dialysis coverage to 144 sessions

MANILA -- Cognizant of the needs of its members undergoing dialysis, the Philippine Health Insurance Corp. increases its coverage for outpatient hemodialysis from 90 to a maximum of 144 sessions for CY 2022.

In its PhilHealth Circular 2022-0017 published over the weekend and in effect immediately, PhilHealth members and their dependents with chronic kidney disease stage 5 (CKD) who are registered in the PhilHealth Dialysis Database are allowed to avail themselves of the maximum 144 hemodialysis sessions until Dec. 31, 2022, provided that the dialysis sessions are prescribed by their attending physicians.

The state insurer also emphasized that the 91st to 144th sessions shall be exclusively used for outpatient dialysis only and any unused sessions will not be carried over to calendar year 2023.

Qualified CKD patients who already used their 91st to 144th dialysis sessions and were not able to avail themselves of the automatic deductions of the benefits from their medical bills can still directly file their claims with any PhilHealth Regional/Branch Office or Local Health Insurance Offices per existing guidelines.

Also reiterated in the guidelines is the application of the No Balance Billing Policy wherein no other fees or expenses shall be charged or be paid for by qualified patients above and beyond the packaged rates as per PhilHealth Circular No. 2017-0017.

In case of delay of filing of claims due to natural calamities or other fortuitous events, PhilHealth shall likewise extend the filing period of claims from 60 to 120 days provided that the area where the patient is located or being treated is under a state of calamity.

My Lola Nor's

From meryendahan to family casual dining

FROM ITS beginnings as a meryendahan in Mabalacat City, My Lola Nor's is evolving to become a family casual dining restaurant where every member finds a favorite in the menu. In a new refreshing, spacious setting at that! This first branch of My Lola Nor's at 301 Telabastagan, City of San Fernando exudes the ambiance of that free and easy time lost in the frenzy of modernization.

Elsa Jocson-Yabut, co-owner of My Lola Nor's 301, said the structure was built from salvaged wood and organic materials like Amakan, Adobe, Narra and old iron from the Roque's ancestral house in Betis Pampanga. It depicts a modern barn house concept and is instagram-worthy. The stunning high ceiling sunroom paired with a seamless flooring made of Machuca tiles gives that embracing welcome vibe. The restaurant has huge windows that look at the greeneries outside, but you can also opt to sit at the dining al fresco where there's a better view of their beautiful garden.

My Lola Nor's 301 owners Dennis and Dr. Angel Dizon with Elsa and Raymond Yabut

"For this branch we partnered with Dennis Dizon and family, they own the property. We are excited because the location is so strategic boundary of San Fernando and Angeles so we are getting customers from both cities and same time its near the prime residential area," she said.

But lest you be mistaken, it is the food that's the star here. My Lola Nor's has become a requisite stop for tourists and locals alike. It is popular for classic Filipino-Kapampangan cuisine. The okoy (vegetable and shrimp fritter), crispy and light, is a specialty. Any day beginning with their pansit luglug (version of the famous Pinoy noodle pansit palabok) is sure to be a good one.

My Lola Nor's embodies the stance of uncompromising quality and traditional way of cooking.

"Kapampangan cooking takes a lot of patience and effort because every recipe is a long process for instance lagat puso (sauteed banana heart) we do the old way from trimming the hard sheaths of banana heart, slicing crosswise with vinegar-soaked knife to squeezing to extract the sap and so on," she shared.

There's no question why people keep coming back to My Lola Nor's the family has preserved the original recipes. Of course, they have made few additions to the menu such as pasta and delectable pugon wood-fire pizza that will be soon available.

Another exciting part is the pasalu-bong corner where you can buy freshly baked breads, cookies and pastries, Sese Matua gourmet cane vinegar and more.

International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples

ON THIS year's International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples, we are highlighting the role of indigenous women in preserving and passing on traditional knowledge.

Indigenous women are knowledge keepers of traditional food systems and medicines. They are champions of indigenous languages and cultures. They defend the environment and indigenous peoples' human rights.

To build and equitable and sustainable future that leaves no one behind, we must amplify the voices of indigenous women.

Indigenous traditional knowledge can offer solutions to many of our common challenges. On my recent visit to Suriname, I learned first-hand how indigenous peoples are protecting their rainforest and its rich biodiversity.

On this International Day, I call on Member States to implement the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and to promote indigenous traditional knowledge for the benefit of all.

(United Nations Secretary-General António Guterres' message in anticipation of the International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples, observed on 9 August.)

Buwan ng Wikang Pambansa

MALUGOD NA pagbati sa inyo, mga kapatid sa Inang Bayan, sa ating pagdiriwang ng Buwan ng Wikang Pambansa.

Napapanahong paalalahanan natin ang ating mga sarili na ang Filipino ay hindi limitado sa mga salitang likas lamang sa Tagalog, bagkus ay isang kalipunan ng iba't ibang wika sa buong kapuluan, na naglalayong magbuklod sa ating lahat tungo sa pagsulong ng mas maunlad at nagkakaisang Republika.

Ngayon, higit kailanman, panatilihin nating matatag ang ating lingwistikong pundasyon sa Filipino, dahil ang sarili nating wika ang ating magiging batayang lakas sa paglinang sa ating kultura, habang nakikiayon sa agos ng makabagong panahon. Isaisip at isapuso natin na tayo lamang ang makapagpapatibay ng wikang taal sa ating pagkakakilanlan.

Inaasahan ang bawat isa na makilahok sa intelektuwalisasyon ng Filipino, nang sa gayon ay mabago na sa ating kamalayan na ang pagsasalita ng banyagang wika ay hindi ang natatanging pamantayan ng karunungan. Tiyak na sasagana, sisigla, at liliwanag ang ating kinabukasan kung itataguyod natin nang buong dangal at pagmamahal ang ating wikang pambansa.

Maligayang pagdiriwang sa lahat. Mabuhay ang Pilipinas at ang wikang Filipino!

Shepherd's Call

Bishop Pablo Virgilio S. David

Tiwala ng katiwala

PAGKUHANAN NATIN ng inspirasyon ang depinisyon ng pananampalataya sa pina-ka-unang linya ng ating 2nd reading mula sa Heb 11:1, "Ang pananampalataya ay katuparan ng pinangangarap at katibayan para sa mga hindi pa nakikita." Luugnay natin ito sa tema ng pagiging MABUTING KATIWALA (good stewardship) na siya namang tema ng ating ebanghelyo.

Si Abraham ang ginawang huwaran ng ating second reading—dahil nagtiwala daw siya sa pangako ng Diyos—kaya iniwan niya ang bayang tinubuan at nanirahan bilang dayuhan sa ibang bayan. Nagtiwala din siya na magkakaanak pa siya sa kandaan, dahil pinangako din ito ng Diyos sa kanya. At hindi niya pinagkait na ialay ang anak niyang si Isaac, dahil din sa tiwala sa pangako ng Diyos!

Sa ebanghelyo, sabi ni Hesus, "Ikinatu-tuwa ng Ama na ipagkatiwala sa inyo ang kaharian." Ibig sabihin, ang Ama ang magtatayo sa kaharian niya, hindi tayo. Pero kasama tayong magbibigay katuparan sa planong ito kung handa tayong makipag-trabaho sa kanya bilang mabuti at matapat na katiwala."

Itong dalawang puntong ito ang pagtu-tunan natin ng pagninilay: ang panampalataya bilang "katuparan ng pinangangarap" at "Katibayan para sa mga bagay na hindi pa nakikita."

Ganyan naman talaga ang kinabukasan para sa tao, di ba? Laging nagsisimula sa isang layunin, isang pangarap. Para bang pinasisilip ng Diyos sa atin sa kasalukuyan ang hinaharap sa pamamagitan ng ating mga pangarap. Nangyayari ito lalo na sa ating pananalangin. Di ba sa ating pagdarasal, kahit mayroon tayong mga kahilingan, hinihiling pa rin natin na ang mga pangarap natin ay maayon sa kalooban niya para sa atin? Na sana'y ipaunawa niya sa atin ang plano niya para sa atin dahil nananalig tayo sa kanya. Pero kung minsan nakakalimutan natin na nananalig din siya sa atin.

Hindi naman mangyayari ang katuparan ng ating mga pangarap na para bang basta na lang mahuhulog mula sa langit. Sa Pilipino sinasabi natin, "Wala kang aanihin kung wala kang itinaninim." Ang batayan para sa aanihin natin sa hinaharap ay ang itinatanim natin sa kasalukuyan. Wala tayong aanihin bukas kapag hindi natin inalagaan ang itinaninim na niya sa kasalukuyan. Kaya nga sa Ingles may salitang POTENTIAL. Ibig sabihin, hindi pa nangyayari ngayon pero pwedeng pangyarihin.

Isipin ninyo ang maraming mga bagay na nagkatotoo na ngayong kasalukuyan pero pangarap lang ito noong nakaraan. Pag natupad, tinatawag natin ito sa Ingles na "answered prayers" or "wishes granted." Halimbawa: pumasa sa board exam at ngayo'y isa nang duktor, o nangarap na magkabahay at ngayo'y nariyan na't titirhan mo na. Hindi naman basta nahulog mula sa langit, di ba? Magandang balik-tanawin ang mga pinagdaanan na humantong sa katuparan ng isang pangarap.

Madalas kasi akala natin ang pagiging mabuting katiwala (o konsepto ng stewardship) ay tungkol lamang sa mga materyal na bagay na nasa ating pangangalaga. Kasama din pala sa ang pangangalaga sa mga layunin, mga pangarap at panaginip. Mga bagay wala pa ngayon pero nasa anyo ng mga hangarin sa atin isip.

May isang kantang Espanyol na isinulat si Victor Jara na Tinagalog ng aking hipag na si Karina David at ang pamagat ay INIISIP KA. Sa una aakalain mo na isang simpleng romantikong awit ito. Hindi pala. Ang iniisip niya ay hindi lang ang minamahal kundi pati na ang mga pangarap na binubuo kasama ng kanyang minamahal.

Sabi niya: "Pag-uwi sa tahanan, iniisip ka, at hinahabi natin ang ating mga mga panaginip... Iniisip ka, mahal, iniisip ka. Ikaw kasama ng buhay at hinaharap, sa matamis na sandali ng ligaya at pakikibaka, sa simula ng kasaysayang di batid ang katapusan."

Totoo ang sabi ni San Pablo. Ang pananampalataya ay may kinalaman hindi lang sa katuparan ng mga pinangangarap natin. May kinalaman din ito sa "katibayan para sa mga bagay na hindi pa natin nakikita sa kasalukuyan" (evidence of things not yet seen).

Marami sa ating mga pangarap ang mananatiling hindi totoo o parang pantasya lamang kung walang batayan sa kasalukuyan. Kaya napakahalaga ng pagkilala sa grasya ng Diyos o mga biyayang pinagka-loob na sa atin sa kasalukuyan.

Hindi naman nagsisimula sa wala ang pagbubuo ng mga plano. Kahit na sinong arkitekto, aalamin muna niya ang lokasyon at sukat ng lotemg pagtatayuan, ang budget ng nagpapatayo, ang mga materyales na meron na at hindi na bibilhin, bago siya guguhit ng plano. Ganyan din ang Diyos sa tuluyan niyang paglikha at pagliligtas sa daigdig at sangkatauhan. Gumagaya lang tayo sa kanya dahil ginawa niya tayong kawangis niya.

Kaya nagsisimula tayo sa kung ano ang mayroon na tayo ngayon na pwede pang pagyamanin, paunlarin at pwedeng maging daan ng mas higit pang mga posibilidad. Kaya ang mabuting katiwala ay hindi naghahanap ng wala. Kinikilala muna niya ang meron na ngayon at ipinagpapasalamat. Di ba ganon ang ginawa ni Hesus nang pakainin ang limanglibo katao? Sa mga alagad parang imposible, kaya ang suggestion nila, pauwiin na lang ang mga tao dahil hindi naman daw sapat ang dala nilang limang tinapay at dalawang isda. Ano ang ginawa ni Hesus, kinuha niya ang meron sila, ipinagpasalamat, hinati at ibinigay. At ang sumunod na parang imposible ay naging posible, kumain ang lahat at sumobra pa.

Kaya nga di ba, may kuwento rin si Hesus tungkol sa tatlong taong pinagkatiwalaan ng iba't-ibang sukat ng ginto? Ano ang ginawa ng pangatlo? Imbes na gamitin niya ang ginto, ibinaon daw niya at isinoli sa amo na walang labis, walang kulang. Bakit siya napagalitan kung hindi naman nawala ang ginto? Kasi pinagtiwalaan siya ng amo, pero sinira niya ang tiwalang ito. Pinangunahan siya ng takot at kawalan ng tiwala sa sarili.

Kaya siguro KATIWALA ang translation natin sa Tagalog sa salitang Ingles na stewardship. Hindi lang ito tungkol sa tiwala ng tao sa Diyos. Higit sa lahat ito'y tungkol din sa tiwala ng Diyos sa atin na makiisa sa pagtupad sa mga pangarap niya para sa atin, mga pangarap na itinatanim niya sa ating mga puso at isip.

Our Changing Narratives

There's great danger when we tamper with historical facts, warned American journalist George Packer. "When facts become fungible," he wrote, "we're lost".

Our narratives are directional, like a moral compass that guides us how to move from Point A to Point B. If we deviate from the moral, selfless path, it will take us a longer time before we reach our destination. Or, worse, never. Politics and pride may detour us, as they have apparently had for the longest time. The sooner we realize we have slid off the right track, the better.

Defining ourselves as a nation in these terms in light of the ongoing attempts – apparently succeeding— should force us to reflect on its future. While more than 31 million Filipinos have obviously acquiesced, if not consented, to this dubious attempts, the rest should be mindful of the historical, if not existential, downside of such insidious efforts.

Nations, like individuals, Packer insisted, tell stories – or narratives – that address their deepest needs and desires". The preamble to our Constitution, the 1987 Constitution, reflect those narratives, those shared realities and visions. Unfortunately, politics tends to upset or upend them.

In this context, the heart and soul of the Constitution is tinkered with, without so much as changing a letter and virtually reduced to or ignored as a mere scrap of paper. There's harm but no foul called. The nation is downsized as a caboose of helpless spectators or kibitzers.

When the going gets tough, the tough gets in the way.

Today, even as more people are getting swayed by the forward-looking influence of a new president, even as the nation continues to cope and grapple with the combined ill-effects of the pandemic, rising cost of living and bad governance, a narrative- changing push is done in earnest while most people look the other way for existential, practical reasons.

"Maid in the Philippines", a commercial film project being identified with Sen. Imee Marcos, is presented to the public as "the truth" when the late Cory Aquino challenged the late Ferdinand Marcos Sr. for the presidency in the 1986 snap presidential election. In particular, a scene where the late Cory was shown playing mahjong with nuns in Cebu while hiding from those allegedly out to eliminate her, has triggered vehement reactions from those who knew "the real truth".

It's not fair, to say the least, and very un-Filipino.

When Cory ran in the 1986 snap presidential race, a nasty tag dogged her feverish campaign: TWA, "talagang walang alam". Why, she hadn't been anything, not even as a barangay exec, but just a plain housewife. No issue about her love for mahjong or that she spoke French- the ultimate elitista. She proved – shamed, in fact --her detractors wrong into exile. The subtle revenge is evident. Revenge is best served cold, so goes an adage.

In 1987, she sued popular columnist Louie Beltran for libel over a piece that claimed she hid under her bed during a coup in Malacanang. To defend herself, she showed a reporter that there was no space under her bed to hide. Pure lie. But not malicious, clarified Beltran, figurative and not literal, to drive home the point that things were real scary at the time. In any case, it reinforced the growing public perception of a woman president who was weak and indecisive.

A lower court vindicated Cory. Beltran lost the case, dragging his publisher, Maximo Soliven, in its wake: two years in jail. The Court of Appeal eventually reversed the decision, giving Beltran a post-humus verdict.

The diatribes, personal and political, came when she could very well defend herself in a democratic setting, although she had her share of disappointments with the local media. But now she's dead, and she can't. Her children apparently will not, or could not. Her son, a former president like herself, has the silence of the grave. Her youngest and most popular – controversial- is fighting a battle with a rare nervous disease. The other daughters are mum. For now.

Other voices have joined the mixed, conflicting chorus about the mahjong tale. Former senator and now presidential legal counsel Johnny Enrile has chimed in by saying that many people knew Cory played mahjong. He didn't say he saw it with his own eyes the scene played out in the "Maid" that Cory had a great time with the nuns.

Cory must have the nerves of steel, indeed. Here she was, fighting a Quixotic battle against a political Goliath, hiding in a convent from some evil men out to take her out for good, but decided having fun with nuns with curlers hanging on her hair like eaves was good decoy. Tsismis noon, kasaysayan ngayon.

In the meantime, talks are that the "Maid" is doing well at the tills, especially with the support of old time political pals like San Juan Mayor Francis Zamora who reportedly bought 5,000 tickets and gave them away to his constituents, presumably so they can reevaluate history in the light of the Marcoses' long political saga.

Obviously, they're back. The son is the new president, the daughter a top senator and other members of the hegemonic clan winning local positions as well. Loyal followers are all agog to queue for tickets to the "Maid", courtesy of Madam Imee – never mind the price. Once upon a time, a lawyer was asked by Supreme Court Chief Justice Ike Fernando why P20 million was given by a farmers' organization to build the coconut palace. "Who can say 'no' to the First Lady?", the lawyer answered. "And you think that is a valid legal argument?" Fernando pressed.

"The point is not simply to change narrative", Jean Michel Hansen said. "The point is to exchange false narrative for the truth." Filmmaker like Director Joel Lamangan is not taking the "Maid" narrative sitting down. He has vowed to do a film about the truth on the alleged Cory mahjong tale in Cebu. He's upping the ante and he's rattling the track.

Kailangan pa bang magpabakuna?

SA ganang personal at aking sarili na ring paniwala kung bakit marami itong noon pa man hangga't maaari di nagpabakuna ya'y di masisisi.

Dahilan na rin sa marami-rami rin namang nagpa- 'inject' kontra Covid-19, nadedbol gaya nang nangyari sa aking bayaw na kapatid ng misis kong giliw.

Napilitan siyang kumbaga'y sumunod sa kung anong bagay na ipinag-utos ng PhilHealth, kung saan ang di magpaturok nito di pupuedeng mag-'over the bakod'.

O lumabas man lang ng kanilang bahay kaya natural lang na itong sinumang takot di sumunod, pikit mata silang nagpaturok nitong bakunang naturan.

Araw ng Lunes nang magpa-bakuna siya, kinabukasan ay iba na'ng aura niya; nanlalata't hrap itong makahinga, namatay siya nang Mierkoles ng umaga.

Posible rin namang nagkataon lamang ang insidente ng kanyang pagkamatay, ngunit hindi natin mapasubalian na baka tama ang ating hinala rian.

Sa ngayon ang ating ikinatatakot ay ang balita na baka itong gamot imbes panlaban yan sa nasabing 'virus,' kabaligtaran ang maaring idulot

'Expired' na ayon sa balitang lumabas itong bakuna na noon pa inangkat ni Duque at mga kadaupang-palad sa D. O. H. kaya itapon na dapat.

At huwag nang pilitin pang magpabakuna ang ayaw isugal ang buhay sa di nga malaman kung alin ang bago at luma sa 'over stock' na nabiling bakuna.

Kasi kung wala rin namang katiyakan na ang bakunado't nagpa'buster' na rian di na makahawa o maaring tablan ang nagpaturok na ipatigil na yan.

Ang ating Pangulo, di ba't nagka-Covid na rin at naratay sandali, at kahit nabakunahan na, ya'y tinablan ulit kaya marapat lang ng huwag nang igiit.

Para ipag-utos ng ating gobyerno na ituloy r'yan ang pagbakunang ito, lalo pa't may taglay din namang peligro, ya'y kailangan na ngang ihinto siguro.

Ang R.A. 11525, kabayan sa isyu ng Covid, 'unconstitutional' na ipairal ang sinasabi nilang ang lahat marapat magpabakuna rian.

Lalo ngayong halos batid na ng lahat na ang iba nito matagal nang 'expired,' at tayo ay hindi rin nakatitiyak kung alin ang hindi na iturok dapat.

Nasa atin bilang isang Pilipino ang tayo'y pumalag sa di natin gusto, republika'ng uri ng ating gobyerno, na may kalayaang pumili ang tao! ~

NI ARMAND M. GALANG

LUNGSOD NG CABA-NATUAN -- Sa kanyang edad na 84 taon, hindi mahuhuli si Dominga "Nana Omeng" Puyat, residente ng Barangay Daang Sarile ng lungsod na ito, sa husay sa pagsayaw sa anumang "zumba" music, dahilan para siya ay taguriang "Zumba Lola" ng Nueva Ecija.

Ngunit ang hindi batid ng marami ay si Nana Omeng, na isang dalaga, ay survivor sa dalawang uri ng cancer – sa ovary at colon – na kanyang pinagdaanan mahigit 20 taon na ang nakararaan.

"Yung pagsu-zumba ko malaki ang naitulong, malakas ang aking katawan, ang aking kalusugan ang inalagaan ko," wika ni Nana Omeng sa panayam ng Punto! Para sa kanya, ang pisikal na gawaing ito ay hindi lamang pampanganda ng katawan kundi pangangalaga sa kalusugan.

Natatagalan pa nga raw niya ang limang oras na pagsu-zumba nang hindi umiinom ng tubig, bagay na naitala ng isang online site na nagdokumento sa zumba session ng seniors group na binubuo ng mahigit 30 senior citizens sa kanilang barangay.

Pinagkalooban siya ng P5,000 gantimpala para sa naturang partikular na sesyon.

Umaani na rin ng milyun-milyong views ang kanyang mga video sa iba't social media platforms.

"Diyos ang lumikha sa atin, ang Diyos lang din ang may karapatang kumuha," pagbabahagi ni Nana Omeng sa kung paano siyang hindi nawalan ng pag-asa sa kabila ng mga pinagdaanang karamdaman.

Taga-Barangay Ad-uas siya ngunit pinili niyang mamuhay sa piling ng kanyang dalawang pamangkin, isang lalaki at isang babae na kapwa na rin mga senior citizen at katulad niya'y walang asawa sa Barangay Daang Sarile.

Hindi nakapag-asawa si Nana Omeng kahit marami ang nanligaw sa kanya noong kanyang kabataan dahil pinili raw niya ang makapagpatuloy ng pag-aaral. Ayon sa kanya, nasa 22-taong gulang na siya nang makapasok ng pag-aaral sa Wesleyan University-Philippines at mula rito'y itinuloy ang Bachelor of Science in Commerce-Accounting sa Araullo University, kapwa sa lungsod na ito.

Dahil sa hirap ng buhay ay itinaguyod niya ang sariling pag-aaral sa pamamagitan ng pananahi. "May mga nanligaw sa akin pero wala sa isip ko yun dahil pag-aaral lang ang ambisyon ko," sabi niya.

Nang magkaroon ng kanser noong 1990s ay ang kanyang mga pamangkin ang nag-asikaso sa kanya.

Nagtataka umano siya noong palabasin siya ng ospital ngunit walang sinabing anumang bakal ang kanyang duktur. "Ako na ang nagtanong. 'Doc, ano ang bakal at puwede kong kainin?'" Sinagot daw siya na kainin niya lang lahat ng gusto niyang kainin.

Makalipas ang isang taon ay saka lamang sinabi ng kanyang mga pamangkin na inaasahan raw kasi ng duktur na mamamatay siya sa loob ng linggong iyon.

"Magdasal. Number 1 ang prayer e," ang payo ni Nana Omeng sa mga nagdaraan sa katulad ng kanyang mga naranasan. Gayunman ay kailangan rin aniya ang disiplina at pag-iingat sa katawan.

Samantala, patuloy na humahakot ng papuri at award si Nana Omeng sa iba't ibang zumba show-down.

accidents and endanger other motorists."

For the first half of the year, more than 8,000 were given traffic tickets at the expressways for violating the anti-overloading provision stated in RA 8794 or "An Act Imposing a Motor Vehicle User's Charge on Owners of all Types of Motor Vehicle and for Other Purposes."

The said law specifies the vehicle load limits and cites that a penalty shall be imposed on trucks and trailers for loading beyond their prescribed gross vehicle weight and axle load exceeding 13.5 tons.

NLEX teams are positioned at strategic entry points to weigh vehicles and determine their compliance or violation of the said law. They also prohibit the entry of vehicles carrying loose construction aggregates not leveled and/or improperly covered as stated in the Toll Regulatory Board Revised Safety Rules and Regulations. The intensified operations will help reduce the risk of accidents attributed to overloading and boost road safety since overloaded vehicles damage road surfaces with their excess weight.

In addition, the tollway company is currently implementing stringent measures in line with the ongoing urgent safety repair of the Candaba Viaduct Southbound. Loaded trucks, trailers, and other

Clark triathlete rules age group in Ironman 70.3 Cebu

BY BONG Z. LACSON

CLARK FREEPORT – A restaurateur mother of two kids topped her age group at the grueling Ironman 70.3 held Cebu held on Sunday, Aug. 7.

Triathlete Mitch Otsuru-Park of Yu-Fu-In Yakiniku and Japanese Restaurant and also vice president of the Hotel and Restaurants Association in Pampanga, ruled the 35-39 Age Group category of the endurance race and qualified for a slot in the Ironman Worlds Championship in Finland next year.

It was no easy feat for Otsuru-Park, hounded as she was by "bad luck" throughout the race.

"Felt like I was the unluckiest person in this morning's Ironman 70.3 Race in Cebu," she posted in her social media account. "First, I realized I left my cycling shoes in our room while waiting for our turn in the swim course so I had to sprint back to our hotel and back to the transition to set it up."

"Next is I got a flat rear tire thrice. Changed the inner tube twice. Used a Co2 once. Biked on flat tires for almost 20-km. Good

The governor has requested the Department of Public Works and Highways and the Department of Transportation as well as their allied agencies like the Land Transportation Office and the police's Highway Patrol Group to strictly enforce RA 8794 or the Anti-Overloading Law of 2000.

Known as “An Act Imposing a Motor Vehicle Users Charge on Owners of all Types of Motor Vehicle and for Other Purposes,” the law promotes motorist safety and prevents early deterioration of roads caused by overloading.

Parts of Pampanga are being used as alternate routes as the NLEX Corp. enforced the 33-ton weight limit along the Candaba Viaduct since Aug. 1 while doing urgent repairs on it.

In a meeting on Tuesday, Governor Pineda said it was “high-time” to act together because the DPWH and local governments continue to allot funds for public infrastructures that are damaged in large parts by vehicles that carry loads beyond the allowable limits.

“Ang laki na ng mga damages sa province. Sobra na po ‘yung laki ng mga truck na dumadaan po sa atin. Mapapansin niyo po yung mga national roads even sa Porac, yearly na lang binibigyan ng DPWH ng pondo para sa rehabilitation. Halos one to two years lang wasak na agad.Yung mga motorista naiistorbo, [nagiging] cause ng traffic, [nagiging] cause ng accident dahil sira-sira yung mga daan kaya kami sa provincial government, nakipag-usap kami sa mga operators. Nagkasundo na po kami ng mga truckers na implement na po ‘yung batas,” Pineda explained.

Beginning Aug. 2 when the governor suspended quarry operations for 15 days, truckers and haulers have voluntarily cut the sidings of their trucks to comply with the 33-ton weight limit imposed by NLEX Corp. on the Candaba Viaduct.

As of August 9, at least 1,000 trucks have been cut to the heights and lengths allowed per vehicle category, according to KALAM (Kapampangan a Lulugud at Matapat).

To regulate vehicles, Pineda said the provincial government will issue new hauling passes to vehicle owners who comply with guidelines imposed by the local government units in coordination with partner agencies.

Violators face a year of hauling suspension, he warned.

“Sana maintindihan niyo po kami. Alam ko po na medyo tataas yung presyo sa Metro Manila. Puwede pong bumaba ‘yung income ng probinsya, pero kung pababayaan ko po ito, ‘yung resources naman po ng national government at perwisyo po na naibibigay sa mga taga- Pampanga, papaano naman po? We need to sacrifice in the province. Huwag po natin hayaan tuluyang masira ang mga daan at tulay natin, mas malaki pong damage ang ibibigay po sa ating ekonomiya kapag nasira po ang mga iyan,” he explained.

Engr. Rodolfo David, chief of the maintenance division of the DPWH in Central Luzon, thanked the governor for his initiative.

“Mapapangalagaan na natin ang mga kalsada at national roads para lalong tumagal at maging mas convenient para sa mga road users natin,” David said. Pampanga PIO upon which his protest was grounded, the 2nd Division stated: “The non-specification of the material facts such as names of the persons involved, the time of occurrence and the precincts where the allegations transpired render these averments blatantly unjustified and groundless.”

A part of the order read: “Though defeat in any elections is desolating for the losing candidate, an election protest must not be mused as a vindication of a lost opportunity of the noble cause to serve the public, or worst, as an unjustified assertion of a wounded pride.”

Pineda garnered 668,787 votes against Baylon's 453,408 votes in the two-way race, according to a certified true copy of a provincial certificate of canvass.

“Ang order po ng Comelec na i-dismiss ang election protest ay tama at makatarungan kasi po naniniwala po ako na hindi mabibili ang mga Kapampangan,” the governor said.

“Sa buong campaign period, nanira sila at gumawa ng mga salita. Tapos na ang halalan, naninira pa rin sila. Sana po, pakinggan nila ang order ng Comelec. Ig-alang po sana nila ang boses ng nakakarami.” With Pampanga PIO thing the marshals assisted me,” she continued. “I trained so much for swim bike run but I didn't train on changing my tires coz I normally don't get flat tires.”

She said she “almost lost hope when I got to the run course, coz I felt like all my trainings went to waste just because of a flat tire,” and consoled herself, “I just wanted to finish the race and still try to have a good finish time.”

Her persistence paid off; “It may be impossible and surreal, but my bad luck changed its course when I finished 1st Place in my Age Group” with a time of 6:33:45.

This year's Ironman 70.3 edition featured the newly-opened Cebu–Cordova Link Expressway Bridge and Mactan Newtown in Lapu-Lapu City, Cebu.

A total of 1,928 athletes from 46 countries joined the race that Tourism Secretary Christina Garcia Frasco hailed as “a clear manifestation of the international triathlon community's confidence in the Philippines as it reopens its borders to the global community.” Bong Z. Lacson/Photos from Mitch Otsuru-Park FB page
